DEAFNESS CAN BE CURED.

COOPER'S ETHEREAL OIL,—A prompt and lasting remedy for DEAFNESS, also for pains and discharge of matter from the Ears

Hundreds of cures in cases deemed utterly hopeless have firmly established its superiority over every former Medical discovery

This valuable Acoustic Medicine is a compound of four different Oils, one of which, the active and principal ingredient, is obtained from the bark of a certain species of Walnut, a new and effectual agent in the cure of deafness.

Persons who had been deaf for 10, 15 and even 20 years have been permanently cured by using this oil. In fact, so numerous and so emphatic have been the testimonials in its favor that the inventor claims for it the distinction of an infallible Remedy, in all cases, when the Ear is perfect in its formation.

A LARGE lot of German Stone ollall sizes.—Rec'd by LEWIS & CO

N. . DOWNS'
Vegetable Balsamic Elixir.
The great Northern Remedy for CONSUMPTION.

Also for the cure of Colds, Coughs, Whooping Cough, Croup, Bleeding at the Lungs, Bronchitis, Catarrh, and all diseases of the Pulmonary or Bronchial Organs

This now more than ten years since this incomparable remedy was given to the public, with what success the thousands of restored invalids, with the universal encomiums of a grateful people afford abundant and gratifying evidence Indeed no medicine has ever with such UNIVERSAL SUCCESS grappled with disease It is its own best commendation, and to be valued needs but to be known

Its operation upon the system is marked and peculiar from that of most similar preparations

It is EXPECTORANT, and most essentially aids in the expulsion from the stomach and lungs of phlegm and phlematic humors, through the process of expectoration or spitting

It is SUDORIFIC and promotes a healthy perspiration thus expelling by the pores of the skin those noxious fluids and impurities of the blood the retention of which in the system is a prolific source of suffering to the invalid

It is slightly CATHARTIC and usually corrects any costiveness attendant upon Pulmonary complaints, while most similar preparations produce a contrary effect thus adding to instead of diminishing that difficulty (See statements of Mr Meader Mr Ross and others, in the pamphlets and sheets)

We do not pretend that the Elixir is a specific for all the ills that flesh is heir to, but we do say and can confirm by incontestible evidence, that for CONSUMPTION it is unequalled Hundreds by its use have been snatched from an untimely grave, and hundreds more, who delayed too long its use, have found even then that relief from suffering which they had vainly sought from every other source

For hard and obstinate COUGHS whether produced by a mere cold, the relic of a fever or the result of a more fixed and permanent pulmonary habit it is just the thing needful, as by its wonderful expectorant qualities it loosens the cough and eradicates the pattes to cure with little effort what would otherwise cause hours of hard and labor has coughing Many persons testify that after having been unable to obtain more than a slight degree of rest for weeks they have on taking the first dose obtained a comfortable night's rest and by continuing its use in a short time have been restored to health

OBSTINATE COLDS AND COUGHS it will usually cure in from two to five days

To persons afflicted with WHOOPING COUGH we would especially recommend the Elixir as it relaxes the cough, and saves much of the labor of hard coughing usually attendant upon that disease

ASTHMA We believe it is a generally acknowledged fact wherever the medicine is known that it relieves generally relief—in so great a proportion of instances effects a perfect cure in this distressing malady, as Downs' Elixir (See certificates of Mr Carleton Mr Perkins and others in pamphlet)

CROUP This dangerous malady in children may be cured by Downs Elixir We speak confidently having never known, among the hundreds of instances in which it has been used, one where it has failed after a fair trial

BLEEDING AT THE LUNGS In this dangerous and formidable disease, the success of the Elixir has been such that we feel authorized in saying no preparation has ever met with similar success It has rarely perhaps never been known to fail where it has been early resorted to and the directions followed Hope on hope ever If you still doubt of its virtues its efficacy enquire of those who have used it—Enquire of the Agents who sell it They generally, either from experience or observation know of its merits and when they tell you of its effect—what they have seen and what they know—are entitled to your confidence

Pamphlets and sheets may be had of agents gratis, giving a full description of the medicine &c.

WEDNESDAY, JULY 22, 1846.

Hon. Joshua R. Giddings.

The distinguished representative of Ohio in the Congress of the United States, Hon Joshua R Giddings, now on his first visit to the Atlantic border, arrived in this city yesterday in the steamboat Governor, it being his first trip upon any portion of the Atlantic Ocean, and indeed the first time he had ever looked out upon its broad bosom We had the pleasure of making the passage with him, and he expressed the highest satisfaction in the appearance of our State, and of New England, and of the general spirit of enterprise he had witnessed, and the culture and comfort so generally enjoyed among the people He had evidently formed a much lower estimate in these matters than the truth appeared to him to warrant

He was called upon during the day by many of our citizens, and in answer to several pressing invitations, he addressed the citizens of Bangor in the evening upon matters of national concern The notice calling the meeting was issued late in the afternoon, but there was a full attendance, a very strong desire being felt to hear the widely known representative of Ohio.

The meeting was called to order by Daniel T Jewett, Esq, who stated the object of the meeting, and made honorable mention of the distinguished visitor to our city The meeting was then organized by choosing the Mayor of the city Chairman

Mr Giddings was introduced to the meeting by the Mayor, and was received with evident satisfaction on the part of the meeting

The hour of our going to press prevents us from giving any notice of his remarks to day, and we must take another occasion to allude to them

New Books.

We have received from Mr Jos W Robinson of Philadelphia, a very valuable and useful work entitled the Scholar's Companion, containing exercises in the Orthography, Derivation, and Classification of English words We have not had leisure to give the book a very thorough examination, but so far as we are able to judge from an hour or two a perusal of it, we think very favorably of it, and regard it as supplying a want that has long been felt

We have also received from the same gentleman, a copy of Alsops Algebra, which appears to be a very scientific and learned work, but better adapted to the advanced classes in our higher Seminaries than to the wants of our public schools

Johnson & Maffatt s Philosophy a work with which we have long been acquainted, is, if not itself the very best, we think, among the best treatises yet published on the subjects of which it treats

☞ The weather here is parching hot, and the streets exceedingly dry and dusty It is said that the crops begin to languish for want of moisture This is in singular contrast with the weather yesterday and not been a day suitable for spreading the wet grass, much of which was in the swath The potato crop in Massachusetts appears well, and many fields are now fit for digging for immediate consumption

Dreadful Effects of Lightning

The brig Columbia, Capt Balber in the New Orleans and Savannah trade, was struck by lightning on the night of July 38, sixty miles from the Balize The crew were aloft reefing topsails at the time, when the electric fluid, in descending the mainmast, after shattering it, precipitated the whole of the men, six in number, into the sea, who were lost It then descended into the hold, and set the vessel on fire Capt B the only passenger on board, was saved

☞ It will be seen by an advertisement in another column, that the splendid Mammoth Circus of Rockwell & Stone, is to make its entrance into our city to-morrow morning, and is to exhibit for the entertainment of our citizens its equestrian feats, by which it acquired so great celebrity throughout all parts of the country

☞ The Journal of Commerce is provided with two editors, one of whom, Mr Hale, condemns the Mexican war as wicked and says the Government ought instantly to back out of it The other, Mr Hallock, went for annexation and goes for the war The Evening Post remarks, "Truly, this is becoming all things to all men, that it may by all means save all its subscribers"

☞ Democracy has indeed some strange places—while professing to regard the will of the governed, even in Missouri it receives commissions from the President, raises troops, and appoints its own officers This it does in the person of one man, a member of Congress, contrary to the express provisions of the law

☞ We find on our return from a journey of a couple of weeks, that communications and other matters have accumulated We shall give our attention to these affairs immediately, and dispose of them according to our best judgment, and we hope acceptable to our friends

☞ As the two trains of cars between Boston and Lowell were passing each other at Wilmington on Monday morning last, a child between four and five years of age fell from the second class cars, his head striking the earth Great alarm was felt by all and as the trains slackened many ran towards the child, but the little fellow gathered up his limbs, jumped upon his feet, and trotted off to catch the cars

☞ Joseph Pillsbury of Thomaston, had six hundred dollars abstracted from him in the streets of New York, by a women, who was aided by James Bowen, a fellow boarder with Pillsbury. Both were arrested and locked up on Wednesday

☞ We are under obligations to Jerome & Co's Express, for papers, by the Governor yesterday, at an early hour.

A western railroad company advertises that all "necks" will be at the risk of the owners

☞ The Tariff Bill is still under discussion, but from the symptoms of impatience, which are exhibited, the decision will not long be deferred The question will probably be taken this week. The result is altogether doubtful—The last predictions of those who pretend to have some better means of judging than the people generally, are, that the bill will pass, just as it came from the House, by a majority of two, notwithstanding Mr Benton s remarks on the Treasury note bill, upon which some hopes were predicated

Santa Anna and his Friends.

A letter from Havana of the 5th inst received in Boston says, "It is said that Santa Anna A monte, Rison, and one other, will embark, after the arrival of the next steamer from Vera Cruz, either per steamer or in an English man of war, for Vera Cruz The American Consul has advised Com Conner of this attention, by U S steamer McLane which sailed on the 1st for New Orleans"

South Africa.

A letter in the London Times of the 3d, dated Fort Beaufort, April 27th, represents the English colonists and the troops in that region, as in a most uncomfortable state of warefare with the Caffres The writer says "We have found a much more formidable foe than we expected, which promises a long and severe war" The Caffres have given some specimens of their ability to fight, as well as to steal cattle, which are by no means, agreeable to the English

Preparations for War.

It is reported by the Philadelphia Ledger that the Government have constracted with Mr Branstead, of Philadelphia, to supply from 50 to 80 thousand sets of tent poles, the tents for which are in progress at different establishments Allowing eight persons to a tent, we have preparations here in progress for covering from 400,000 to 640,000 men

☞ A letter at New York states that the Steamer Jewel burst her boiler at Havina, killing Jas Wood the engineer, the Captain, and eight or ten others The hull then took fire, and burnt to the water

Nathaniel P Willis Esq we see it stated, is about to marry the only daughter of a prominent member of Congress, from Mass The young lady is about 23 years old, highly accomplished and amiable

The War.

The Washington Correspondent of the New York Evening Post, under date of July 17th says —

The designs and plans of the government seem to be much larger and deeper than I had supposed, and the end of them no man can forsee It appears that the invasion of Mexico is to be carried on in the most regular, methodical and expensive manner, and withal with the utmost deliberation in respect to time

The column of General Wool is to move forward from Fort Gibson or some other point in Arkansas, in the month of August, and to enter Mexico at San Antonio, that of General Kearney will reach Santa Fe as soon as possible, and will concentrate with the first division Of course no one can tell about the exact time of conquering a peace, may include the conquest of a very considerable portion of the Mexican territory

U. S. Schooner Flirt.

The Washington Union contains the following letter from Lieut Sinclair, of the U S schr Flirt, to the Secretary of the Navy dated Brazos d Santiago, June 29 —

Sir—I have the honor to report to you that on the 27th inst, about 100 miles southward of this, whither I was blown in a very heavy gale, I fell in with, and in a sinking condition, the schr Sarah Lavinia, of Harwich, Mass, and took from her the captain, mate, and three men, all of whom I have now on board The weather was entirely too boisterous, and the vessel too far gone, to save any part of her cargo

I beg leave to mention to the department the conduct, upon that occasion, of Midshipman George H Hare, who at the imminent risk of his life—the sea rolling at the time very high—jumped into the boat intended to be sent to their assistance, and brought them on board—The boat was a very small and indifferent one, and sunk almost immediately upon her return from the quantity of water shipped

Affairs at Washington.

Friday, July 17.

In the Senate, the Treasury Note Bill was taken up

Mr Evans said he had not time to examine the bill, but he would vote for it because he believed the necessities of the Treasury demanded it But he wanted to know one thing—how these notes were to be paid At the very time while the Administration propose to borrow ten millions, they propose to pass a bill which will reduce the revenue of the country to an equal amount

Mr Evans said the notes or loan never would be paid, whatever might be the amount borrowed whether ten, twenty or thirty millions No, they never would be paid until the restoration of the tariff bill of 1842

When Mr Evans had concluded, Mr Benton rose and declared his opposition to an issue of paper money by the Government, at this early stage of the war He was for taxation—for a taxation upon tea and coffee—for taxation as far as the country could bear it, first—a resort to loans after that—and, as a dernier resort, an issue of Treasury Notes Mr B did not know that he would not vote for the bill under the circumstances of the case, but there was one insuperable objection which must first be removed—and that was the provision in the first section of the bill, authorizing a re issue of the notes from time to time That was too much like banking, and he moved to strike it out

Mr Lewis then moved that the bill be postponed until to morrow, which was agreed to

The bill for the reduction of the Tariff was then taken up

Mr Davis resumed and concluded his speech in opposition to the bil

When Mr D had concluded, Mr McDuffie called out 'question'

Mr Johnson of Md, said he desired to give the reasons why he should vote against the bill, which would occupy one or two hours, but he should not be prepared until to morrow

Mr McDuffie at first objected, but finally yielded, with a sort of general understanding that the vote should be taken before the close of next week

The House was engaged all day upon the private calendar, and passed several bills

The Hutchinson Family.

The following delightful sketch of the Hutchinson Family is from the pen of William Howitt Our readers will remember that we gave, a short time since, in the Atlas, some lines to the same family, by Mary Howitt — Boston Atlas

"At the moment when ill will and discord seemed to about to be fomented between the Old and New World, four young Americans have come before us like heralds of peace and good-fellowship They have been cordially welcomed in England, as all advocates of human advancement ought to be, and it is not saying too much to assert that they have done their part towards strengthening in the public mind a spirit of forbearance and peace The Hutchinson Family are exactly what Americans—the children of a young, bold republic—ought to be, full of fresh, original character, free from conventionalities, whether of society or opinion vigorous in intellect, ardent in spirit, and combining, with all the simplicity and tenderness of the child, the wisdom and expansive views of the man Their singing is a perfect illustration of their own nature and character, deriving its great power and its greatest charm from the absence of all art—It owes nothing to trick or artifices of any kind, every word is distinctly enunciated and the true natural expression is given to every sentiment, and the listener feels that while the most exquisite and pure taste and skill is employed, that which really charms him most is a revelation of the singer s own lofty and unspoiled nature, and that it is great and effective, because it is the expression of truth

The character of their music is peculiar and original, not exactly resembling either the part songs of the Germans or our English glees which are much more artistically constructed There is a charming nationality about it and a spirit of psalmody which is easily explained when the peculiarities of their life and training are understood Many of the pieces which they sing are not songs, in the ordinary sense of the words but poems of a high order, as for instance Longfellow s Excelsior, Hood s Bridge of Sighs and the Pauper s Funeral, Tennyson s May Queen, &c Their voices, which are soprano, counter tenor, tenor, and bass, are extremely fine and well trained, and besides the effect of long practice in singing together, have that beautiful affinity which belongs to family voices, and which renders the whole so exquisitely harmonious

These interesting young people belong properly to the present age, and their songs bear upon the questions agitated at this time, whether in the old or new world—peace, temperance, the abolition of slavery, the cause of the poor and oppressed—which are all advocated by eloquent strains of music, appealing to the inmost heart Some people think that in this working day world of odrs music has little to do with topics so grave as these, and that its principal business is to enlven our hearts, and dispel our care, and for such as these the Hutchinsons have an infinite variety of comic and national songs, full of fun and humor, and as fresh as life in the Far West

At the head of this article we have given a sketch of these charming singers as they appear before the public and we flatter ourselves that a little memoir obtained from authentic sources, will not be unacceptable either to those who have seen them, or those who have not

Judson, John, Asa, and Abby, are the four youngest of the twelve now living, out of sixteen children of the Hutchinson Family The maternal grandfather, by name Leavett, lived in Mount Vernon, in New Hampshire, and was a builder by trade He built many houses in Boston but he most prided himself upon being the builder of many churches and meeting houses in divers towns and villages in the State He was a stout republican, zealous in the cause of his native land, and one of the firmest supporters of her liberty against the aggression of the mother country In character he was deeply religious, and being possessed of great natural gifts in a still more remarkable manner, and their singing in churches and meeting houses was celebrated far and wide Nothing could be more simple and primitive than the life they led, they spun and wove their own and the family clothes, practised their songs over the wheel and the loom, and on Sundays or meeting days sung in the church or the meeting house Mary was very beautiful, and had many lovers but Sarah had the finest voice, and her skill in church music was so great that she would take any part, and the people came many miles to hear her sing One day when she was from home, she went to sing in a church some distance, and being on a visit, was dressed somewhat differently to what she was when at home, her father, however, happened also to be at the same church, and was astonished by the beautiful voice of the singer, whom he saw but did not recognise, "Who is that he asked, turning to a neighbor, "who sings so like an angel?" "Do you not know your own daughter?" was the reply, which so much affected him that he could not help weeping

Mary, also, when she was singing one day in a village choir, stole the heart of a young man from Amherst, in the some State This was Jesse Hutchinson, the son of a farmer a very religious man, and a deacon of the Presbyterian church This youth, also, like her, had been from his boyhood remarkable for his musical talent He had a brother also gifted like himself and they, too, were celebrated through the whole country for their musical powers But though their father was a rigid presbyterian, and a deacon of the church, his sons were famed for the fun and merriment which they brought everywhere with them They went with their violins from village to village, and wherever they went they were welcome, not only because of the gay and merry songs which they sang, but because their violins were a summons to a general dance, which always lasted till daybreak—From some cause or other, however, a great change come over his mind, he considered this life of gaiety to be sinful, and regarding his violin as an incentive to it, cut the offending "merry" fiddle of wood in two, and made it up into tobacco-boxes, and from that time permitted himself only to practice sacred music

It was soon after this change, and about four and forty years ago, when in his best homespun suit, and his hair tied in a queue behind, with a black ribbon, and a broad brayer on his head, he presented himself to the beautiful young singer in the character of a lover She was then not sixteen, too young to be married, she said, and was hard to persuade Her father, who thought very highly of the young man, who had borne a most excellent character, and who was once of so excellent a stock, pleaded for him, but she would not consent, and leaving him in the parlor she went to bed He sat up a one all night in the room, and the next morning when she went in, there she found him, but she was still resolute, and he set off for Salem, thinking that time and absence might operate in his favor, and he was right On his return she was glad to see him, and though still young, consented to be married These were the parents of the Hutchinson Family, the "good old fashioned singers, as the family song says 'who still can make the air resound

On his son's marriage, old Deacon Hutchinson gave up his house and farm to the young couple, and retired to a small house near them, and Sarah, whose voice and character like those of an angel, went with her sister to her new home A word or two must be permitted here on this most heavenly minded young woman, who, being one that the gods loved, died young, and that principally because, though her life was so short, her spirit seemed always to be present in the family, exercising as it were, a purifying and enobling influence on all She was one of those gifted creatures who seem to be sent only to show how beautiful is youth, talent, and goodness, and who in departing leave a ray of glory behind them, ascending from earth to heaven

The children of the family who knew her, adored her; and those who were born after her death from always having heard her spoken of, believed that they had known her It often has seemed to the family as if her angelic voice was heard singing amongst them, a spirit-voice singing as no earthly voice ever sang, and who shall deny that it is so? The very idea is elevating and beautiful

Jesse Hutchinson and his young wife were the first Baptists in Milford, and were the introducers of their peculiar religious opinions into the neighborhood they frequently opened a large barn as a meeting house, and endured no little persecution In those days carriages were not used, except by the wealthy, and these excellent people, who had 14 miles to go their meeting house, rode on horse back in the old fashioned way of saddle and pillion, she often with a young child on her lap The country round their home was hilly and woody, and of a peaceful, pleasant character, and their life within doors was singularly happy and united, it was a home of affection, comfort and prosperity; and here 14 children (13 of whom were sons) were born

Sorrow, however, will enter, even in the most blessed of earthly homes The angelic minded Sarah died, and so did the eldest child, when only 6 years old This child, like all the rest of the family, had a wonderfully fine voice, and was remarkably beautiful He was always up first in the morning, and was heard through the house singing like a lark His death was very affecting His father and uncle were at a saw mill at some distance, where he was sent each day with their dinners While they sat and ate the little fellow amused himself by playing among the sawn boards which were reared up to dry, one day a sudden wind rose and blew down the boards upon him, which caused his death

Years went on, the elder children grew up to man s estate, and the place was too straitened for them, the parents and younger children, therefore, removed to one of the villages below, on the bank of the Souhegan river to a place called Bornham Farm, and thenceforth, the former residence took the pleasant name of the Old Home Farm At this new home the two younger children Asa and Abby were born

The father of the Hotchinsons has all his life been in principle a non resistant, and has carried out his opinions so far into practice as never to sue a man for debt He is an abolitionist, and a decided liberal in politics and has as might be expected, suffered greatly for the maintenance of his opinions He is described by those who know him as a man of noble and independent character, full of kindness and remarkable for hospitality, even in a country where hospitality is not so rare a virtue as with us But the guests that he most warmly welcomes are the poor and friendless, these he entertains bountifully, and then speeds on their way From their mother, who likewise is a person of much boldness and decision of character, combined with the tenderness and affection, they learned singing as children she had fine taste, as well as natural power and afterwards the younger branches of the family were trained by two of the elder brothers, who devoted part of their time to this purpose

Remainder to morrow

☞ We commend the following, particularly the climax, to our patrons generally The author will be remembered, as the talented young artist who resided in this city some few years since

[From the Albany Argus]

The Rhyme of the Tempest-Fiend.

BY T TRACY

[A certain Mariner hath a charm upon his life, and upon his vessel and crew and hath defied the Fiend of the Tempest whereupon the Fiend conspireth with his familiars to sink and destroy both ship and sailors]

"Come Wind come Wind!" said the Tempest Fiend,
Come Lightning and Thunder too;
There's work to be done, ere the morning sun,
And I'll warrant it 'twill be for you!
[illegible]

The Spirits heard and their master's word
Obeyed right merrily,
"Hurrah hurrah! for our lawful prey,
The mortal that dares defy"
Sly Lightning laughed a curious laugh,
And his forky tongue he put out,
And Thunder bellowed his welkin old
Made echo within his shout

Wind loo spun round, and danced about
At the news so rich and rare,
And tore a nook from the old gray rock,
And rode him through the air
Dark dark was the scowl of the Tempest Fiend
As his dragon wings he spread
And away, away on his dire errand,
With his hellish rout he sped

Loud roared the wind and Thunder beat
He sang with all his main,
And the tune they played as they coursed the air,
Was the "March of the Hurricane"
The woods beneath they bowed full low,
Or leapt and whirled on high
The mountains roared and shook their sides
With glee as the train went by

The mountains roared, and shook their sides,
Till the big rocks rattled down
As the buttons roll off an Alderman s coat,
In his jokes of old renown!
And away away the sea is gained
The laid for death he
"Hurrah! hurrah for our lawful prey,
The mortal that dares defy"

What is it there? what is it there?
A gallant ship and tall
"Now boys, now boys, don't make a noise,
Keep dark and quiet all"
And Lightning curled in the black robe
And Thunder stomped his gong
Even Wind essayed to smother his voice
And they shipward swept along

The skipper he stood on his vessel s deck
He saw those shapes so grim,
He furled his sails save topsail one,
And all made taut and trim
The moon was hid, the skies grew dark
The air waxed hot and dry
And cowered the waves, till their waste like a plain
Of solid glass did lie.

The old salt grasped his tiller hard
'Mid the oil of sulphrous smell,
A ball of fire on the main truck glowe
And he marks it long and well
Hast thou no fear, old Mariner,
That sign of scathe to see?
He turned his quid the skipper did,
And thus consoured he

"A charm, a charm, on my life is laid,
On my crew and vessel tight,
I wish 'twere off—I'd try it alone,
And weather the brunt for spite
And he took a pull from his bottle black,
That he felt in all his bones
And told his crew his will to do,
Or he d knock em to Davy Jones

Down swooped the storm, with a fearful might
And Thunder roared, I trow,
While Lightning burnt his powder well,
To light the merry show
And ye should have seen that ship careen,
As ever grew red the brane,
Her yards dip down, and her copper keel
Like the Lightning's self outshine

As clowns leap through their hoop-la hoops,
Or cats through papered "windsors,"
So bolted Wind her topsail through,
And tore it all to flinders!
And louder then he howled for joy,
Her spars and shrouds among,
While her topmasts all, with his furious might,
Like whipstalks bent and sprung!

And who shall tell how the waves reared up,
And shook on high their crests,
And plunged, and trampled along her decks,
Till she half was lost in vests!
Now hold thine own, thou gallant craft,
Hark! hark! 'midst the tempest's drone,
How her timbers creak, and all her hulk
Like a living thing doth moan!

I wot the skipper, nor yet his crew,
All drenched and pickled in brine,
E'er saw the like of that dire ado,
Since first they crossed the Line
The votry rats in the hold below,
Rushed forth with bristling hair,
And fell at each other, and fought like fiends,
For nothing but terror there!

There too, was a spider, old and gray,
In the cook's caboose that hid,
Now up, now down, on his home-made shrouds,
He went as the sailor's did,
And over he stared with his eight eyes
Through the inky gloom, and swore
If he'd known such things were to come to pass,
He'd have staid, he would, on shore.

Oh, swift is the flight of the eagle bold,
O'er the clouds beneath him piled,
But swifter, I ween, was that ship's career,
O'er the billows fierce and wild!

Like a hunted panther athwart their sides,
On her foamy track she sprang,
But ever she baffled, for all their wrath,
The might of the ocean gang!

"I'll tell you what" said the Tempest Fiend,
"Such work will never do;
Now Lightning bring your knives best,
And pierce her through and through!"
And Lightning his lances hurled, and you'd thought
The day of that ship was done,
But its just a fact, she dove, and dove,
And dodged them every one!

And so it was and the Fiends owned up,
And to make my story short,
They cut their stickes and the ship held on,
And all got safe to port.
But the charm, the charm that saved—just so,
And lest for fear lest unlock it
That Skipper had paid his Printer's Bill,
And has the RECEIPT in his pocket!

Absolute Heal-All!

Mr Adams, Sir My little daughter, last winter, aged one year, pulled a coffee pot filled with boiling hot coffee, off from a stove, on her back and arms and one side, and also on the back of her head, and was in great distress as you might suppose till I procured a box of Connel s Pain Extractor when, strange to tell, in from ten to ten minutes after the application, she stopped screaming and in a very short time appeared free from pain, and within two weeks she was healed, and no appearance even of a scar remains, excepting on her back, which was not attended to so much as the other parts, I know of its use in other cases with like success, and will say that all has been said of its wonderful healing virtues I believe to be strictly true. I have been very severely troubled with a hacking cough, attended with pain in the side for years especially during the winter for the last ten years past I have spent a great amount of money in endeavoring to regain health and have tried nearly every day with little or no benefit last winter I was more than ever much worn down with the cough and so that I was unable to walk discouraged and began to think that my case was a hopeless one this situation a friend called on me to send and purchase a bottle of Pulmonary Balsam, and a box of Lobelia Pills prepared by Comstock saying he had made use of them for a similar and had been cured confidence in any patent medicine I had long lost and found no relief and had given up hope for some time At the request of a friend who declared they had done him good I purchased a bottle of july 3, 1846.

FOR SALE
A TENEMENT on Essex Street owned and occupied by the subscriber.
JAPHETH GILMAN.

Valuable Real Estate.
THE subscriber being very desirous to make sale of his Real Estate for the payment of his "just debts and incidental charges," invites the attention of those who may wish either to invest a small sum in a rising property, or to procure a convenient residence, near the centre of business.
The estates which are offered as coming under the above description are, 1st: A House and Lot on Main-street, south side, almost in immediate connection with our principal stores. The lot is 94 feet on Main-st., and 100 feet on High Lane, and contains about 5,600 square feet. The buildings are old, but the lot will be found to possess great capabilities of being made very productive. Chances for investment in property so centrally situated are not of every day's occurrence, and their value is not generally appreciated, but the subscriber, for the very "cogent reasons" above suggested, being very earnest to sell, hopes that he may, by this notice, excite the attention of those who on examination may be inclined to purchase.
The other consists of a convenient House, Lot and out-buildings situated on May-street, the lot 75 by 120.
The subscriber will feel greatly obliged to those who do him the favor to examine the premises and will be disposed to sell either or both of them for much less, than he considers their value.
HENRY CALL.

Dr. S. O Richardson's CONCENTRATLD Sherry Wine Bitters.

THE Proprietor of this Medicine offers to the public the result of an extensive practice and a thorough investigation of the laws which govern the human system

It cannot be denied by those who have become acquainted with the singular virtues of these Bitters that they possess an ascendancy over all others now in use, for the diseases which they profess to cure

It is a well known fact, that most diseases arise from a derangement of the Stomach and Bowels, in youthful adult and declining life

The extensive sympathies which subsist between these and every other part of the living body are the foundation of nervous diseases of all kinds Irregular Appetite Languor Drowsiness, Wandering Pains Headache Lowness of Spirits &c

And these, in their turn give birth to Dyspepsia, Palpitation of the Heart, Shortness of Breath Jaundice Piles, Fevers, Inflammatory Humors Coughs and a host of diseases which embitter life and poison all sources of enjoyment

The distinguished character of these Bitters is most striking, their operation being more effectual powerful according to the violence of the disease When used in appropriate quantity, in cases of slight derangement of the Stomach and Bowels, cause, by costiveness or a slight bilious difficulty and the like, whose nature needs assistance to prevent more serious consequences, they will be scarcely felt

On the contrary, in obstinate cases they frequently operate more powerfully, causing two or three evacuations daily, until the circulating fluid becomes purified This accomplished they act on the system in connexion with our food each receiving mutual assistance until the constitution is restored to a state of health and renewed vigor

For sale wholesale and retail at the Doctor's Office, 15 Hanover st cet, Boston and by Agents, Merchants, Druggists and Apothecaries, in every town throughout the New England States Price 75 cts a bottle, 50 cts a paper

DR. KITTREDGE'S Green Nerve and Bone Ointment discovered and used by the late Dr Kittredge of Walpole, N H, with the most unprecedented success, is now prepared by Geo C Goodwin, Druggist, 78 Union street, Boston, from the Original Receipt, and is confidently recommended to the public for the cure of the following diseases incident to the human frame

THE AFFLICTED IN DANGER! SALUTARY CAUTION. READ! READ!!

THIS well established and well earned reputation of WRIGHT'S INDIAN VEGETABLE PILLS, as a Sovereign antidote, and cure in cases of Fevers, Head Aches, Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Dysentery, Colic, Female Complaints, &c &c has excited the cupidity and envy of the proprietors of other medicines, and since their undoubted virtues cannot be impeached, has arisen a host of spurious imitations, and base counterfeits, all of which are the antagonist efforts of men who seek to pass off other medicines by the reputation of Wright's Indian Vegetable Pills

Beware of all attempts to palm off any (so called) specifics by means of specious sounding and deceptive titles, "SUGAR COATED PILLS" may be pleasant to the palate, but it requires something more than a agreeable exterior to combat with disease We shall not attempt to analyze the composition of the "trash" Coated or pretended improved Indian Vegetable Pills," which has been thrown into the market and advertised extensively in the country papers—we have no desire to do so—nor is it necessary It is, however, our duty to assure the public emphatically, that they are not an improvement on WRIGHT'S Indian Vegetable Pills and that, whoever purchases them under this supposition is wofully deceived. This caution is positively necessary, since the title (nearly) the qualities set forth, the combination of ingredients, &c are all those which formed the distinctive and original character of the genuine medicine

Remember, buy none but "WRIGHT'S Indian Vegetable Pills," which are protected by a patent These have attained an almost incredible sale and circulation, owing altogether to their own intrinsic merits The public will pause ere they attempt to pluck the Laurel from the brow of the inventor of those medicines where it has been placed by grateful thousands who owe their continuance of the enjoyment of the blessings of health to his happy and benevolent agency

Wright's Indian Vegetable Pills

BRIGGS'S INDIAN BALSAM OF LIFE

PULMONIC SYRUP

For Coughs, Coughs, Asthma, and other Diseases of the CHEST and LUNGS.

BUCHAN'S HUNGARIAN BALSAM the Great English Remedy for Pectoral and Pulmonary diseases, still stands unrivalled and unsurpassed as the most elegant, agreeable, and effectual curative of these formidable complaints, now known to the civilized world

Three years of trial in the United States, during which time it has been distributed from Maine to Florida, has only served to establish its pre eminent merit in all parts of the country, on the great and in the worst case of Pulmonary disease and the best and most agreeable curative of all the slight forms of cough and inflammation, that can possibly be used

SPITTING OF BLOOD! This frightful symptom of approaching consumption is speedily checked and prevented by the use of Buchan's Hungarian Balsam, which relaxes the affected membrane, removes the irritation which is the cause of the disease, strengthens those vital organs, the lungs to resume and heal by condition

REMEMBER THIS Spitting of Blood always arises from ulceration to Tubercles or disease and if not checked, at the outset, will sooner or later destroy life

A person who raises blood once, will raise it to death A person who raises blood once, will raise it to death A person who raises blood once, will raise it to death unless a proper curative is immediately employed!!

PAIN IN THE SIDE! This distressing symptom of Consumption arises from inflammation of the Lungs or Consumption arises from inflammation of the Lungs or the Membrane called the Pleura, or from Blood in the Pleura or the side passages In either case it is a very dangerous condition of the side It prevents full breathing and wears away the natural strength of the system Thousands of this symptom have died who could not have, and nothing can possibly effect this in a permanently good manner but the Great English Remedy, discovered by Dr Buchan, which is entirely vegetable in its ingredients, and perfectly harmless in all cases

LIVER COMPLAINT In cases of Consumption the Liver is always more or less affected, and the Spleen, Pleura, and small intestines Good opinions Physicians often attribute these organs particularly upon the Liver which also the mind, city and swelled The effect of the Liver, when it becomes diseased is the cause of the Liver, when it becomes diseased is the cause of the most powerful curative agent in the world

Simple disease of the Liver, unattended by Consumption is speedily cured by its use

WINTER COUGH The harsh dry hacking winter cough which affects old people, and invalids in a low state of health is happily affected by the Hungarian Balsam

It warms, moistens and stimulates the whole breathing apparatus, removes all morbid humors and other foulness from the blood, and promotes the secretive power of the Liver Spleen, and other digestive glands, and the digestive organs, and imparts new life to the whole nervous system

BRONCHITIS Difficulty of Breathing Harsh Cough, scanty expectoration, with all other symptoms consequent on an attack of the Bronchial Tubes, or the lungs, are speedily and permanently cured by the use of the Hungarian Balsam, which is the only popular remedy which has any power to dissolve, remove, and cure Tubercles on the Lungs Incredible as this is generally esteemed we have the most abundant and conclusive evidence to sustain the assertion that such is its direct and immediate effect, in all cases where there is no natural organic defect In fact, so confident is the American Agent of its power to cure the worst form of this disease that he prefers, (as he has frequently stated) that it should be used by invalids who have been PRONOUNCED INCURABLE by the most eminent physicians rather than by persons affected with some slighter form of disease—in order that its triumphs might be more apparent He boldly declares that it will cure Tuberculous disease and confidently solicits a trial in the worst of cases

EXPECTORATION! Free Expectoration is the most important object to be attained in all attempts to cure diseases of the Chest and Lungs The Cough which is so distressing, is simply the result of a desire to expectorate, and as long as foul matter exists in the air passage it will continue to irritate, the membrane and provoke a cough Coughing is an attempt to throw off the matter and expectoration gives great relief Inability to expectorate in the latter stages of Consumption is the cause of death

The Hungarian Balsam is a great Expectorant—It dissolves the morbid and diseased matter in the air passages changes it from a thick, gluttinous substance to a thin harmless fluid, and throws it off with the greatest possible ease and comfort to the patient There is no better medicine in the world, if its expectorant quality alone be considered

SPASMODIC ASTHMA Simple or Spasmodic Asthma has no better remedy than the Hungarian Balsam This painful and destructive affection which resists almost every thing else, yields to the all powerful influence of this great remedy as readily as any other form of Pectoral disease

CONSUMPTION! Consumption has been graphically described as a "Shrinking of one's self" The Hungarian Balsam, by its cleansing, warming, softening and animating power, produces, not shrinking but expansion!

Before its delightful influence, all chills, fever night sweats costiveness, blueness of the nails, a hot flushed skin an uncertain strength, emaciation and decline—disappear, like the poisonous dews of night before the glorious morning sun! This is no delusion, but demonstrable fact, sustained by incontestible proof from all parts of the country

BE WISE TO DAY Delay in any case of Consumptive tendency, is emphatically Death under all ordinary treatment The Hungarian Balsam is a great ANTIDOTE, as well as CURATIVE If you have any symptoms above described be advised in time

PURIFYING THE BLOOD MOFFAT'S VEGETABLE LIFE PILLS AND PHŒNIX BITTERS

The high and merited celebrity which these Medicines have acquired for their invariable success in curing the diseases which they profess to cure, has induced many unprincipled persons to attempt the sale of worthless articles under the same name. The genuine Medicines are now put up in wrappers and labels, together with a signature of "Moffat's Good Samaritan," on the top of each box, on which is a drawing of Broadway from Washington Office, by which strangers visiting the city can find us. The wrappers and Samaritans are so contrived that those who procure them may be assured that they are genuine No certificates are published but those who buy them with yellow wrappers but if any do so they will find that they come almost from us, or dont touch the pills
